

21st March 2025

Guest Lecture On Social Intelligence

KC College of Engineering & IT, Nawanshahr organized a guest lecture on Communication skills. In this lecture Ms' Ravneet Kaur spoke on the topic 'Social Intelligence'. She explained the students why and how communication plays a vital role in society and what difference we can make by using effective communication skills. She further elaborated giving some examples that in students' life communication can bring progress and success. She said with the tactful use of seven C's of communication we can become better communicator.

